
Biography Director

Visar Morina was born in Pristina (Kosovo) on 10th of October 1979. He graduated in Film Direction from the Academy of Media Arts in Cologne (Germany) 2009. His graduate film "Death by Suffocation" premiered at the Max Ophüls Awards and has been shown on more than 40 festivals. It won several awards and was broadcasted by ARTE.

His latest film OF DOGS AND WALLPAPER has been premiered at the Locarno Filmfestival 2013, International competition.

Filmography (script/ directing):

2013: OF DOGS AND WALLPAPER (VON HUNDEN UND TAPETEN), Short film, 30 min, augenschein/ Arte

2009: DEATH BY SUFFICATION (DER SCHÜBLING), Short film, 30 min, elsani film/ KHM

2008: SIRENS (SIRENEN), Short film, 23 min, KHM

2006: A SAFE PLACE FOR EVERYONE (SICHERHEIT FÜR ALLE), Short Film, 43 min, KHM

2006: THE PROFESSOR AND MY DOG (DER PROFESSOR UND MEIN HUND), Short Film, 8 min, KHM

Awards: DEATH BY SUFFOCATION (selection)

"Best Film" Freshfilm Fest International Film Festival, Prague Czech Republic, 2010 /// "Most surprising international film" Odense International Film Festival, film of the year 2010, Denmark /// "Special mention" Rencontres Henri Langlois, Poitiers Paris, France /// „Young Cinema Award“ Young Cinema international Filmfestival, Poland /// „Publikumspreis“ UNLIMITED Cologne, europäisches Filmfestival, Köln /// "Best Best Fiction Short Film" Tirana International Film Festival, 2010, Tirana /// "Audience Award" Early melons international Filmfestival, Bratislava, Slovak Republic, 2011.